

Chrome :: Details :: Remote Managed Services

Chrome Lite
Chrome Active Chrome Managed

Using the latest technology we can access your network via a secure internet connection. Remote Managed Services provides instant assistance direct to your server or desktop offering increased support levels and reduced downtime. To enable us to offer remote assistance your network must have a fixed connection to the internet, such as ADSL with a Static IP. You will also need to be running our remote support applications, which we will supply and install.